Entertain Veterans At Gulfport

The Bay St. Louis group brought cheer to the service men at the Veterans Hospital at Gulfport during the Christmas season. Mrs. J. B. Goldman, Mrs. D. M. Russell and Mary Frances Scaife, furnished the entertainment; the girls sang and danced with Mrs. Goldman as accompanist. Mrs. C. C. McDonald's class of young adults furnished the refreshments which the men enjoyed very much. There were many kinds of sandwiches and hot chocolate with whipped cream and cake. The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church made and filled the grab bags which furnished entertainment for the men as they each received a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Leo W. Seal was in charge of arranging the party and that in itself made it a success. These women are doing a wonderful work for the veterans.

Going over besides those mentioned were Mrs. Max Kohler, Mrs. G. C. Romanoff, Mrs. A. J. Noto, Mrs. Claude Hooton.

Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Christmas Dinner Held Monday Evening

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club was host to the Rotary Anny and guests on Monday evening at Hotel Reed at its annual Christmas banquet.

The dining room of the hotel all dressed up for Christmas added cheer to the scene and music and laughter prevailed. G. F. (Pat) Rooney was in charge of the program which is always an assurance that it will be good. D. M. Russell, president, presided at the banquet. Of course, Jingle Bells was on the program. It wouldn't be a Rotary party without Jingle Bells. Ben Hille sang as a solo "Silent Night." At the singing of "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" old Santa in the person of Rotarian Arthur Scaife, entered and gave appropriate gifts to the Rotarians. The clever presentation remarks as well as the gifts brought forth much merriment. Favors for the ladies were placed at the guests' places.

They were miniature flower pots with artificial plants and were most artistic.

Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick was presented with a bouquet of carnations and Iris as an appreciation of the outstanding work done by her during the war. It came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Kirkpatrick and was a gallant gesture on the club's part and the party was one of the loveliest given by the club and the dinner was a meal as only Howard LeTissier can serve.

Out of town guests were Mrs. A. G. Anderson and daughter Miss Marilyn Anderson, San Mateo, California; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. Nohe, Jennings, La.; Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Keefe, Streeter, Illinois and Mr. and Mrs. Sloane.

Brother Peter's Christmas Tree Held Monday

Each year, as Christmas draws near, "Brother Peter's Christmas Tree" is one of the most outstanding events, and this year was no exception. At two o'clock on Monday afternoon, Santa greeted over 1000 little tots of all denominations in St. Stanislaus Gym, where a huge Christmas tree stood with gifts, fruit and candy for all.

Christmas carols were played by St. Stanislaus Band during the celebration.

This tree, that brings happiness to so many under privileged children is made possible by individual donations, the proceeds from the annual Fear-Fly football game. This year the proceeds from the sale of tickets (sold in Bay St. Louis) for the Toy Bowl Game, held in Birmingham, Ala., were also added to the tree fund.

On Friday, December 20 the drawing of the lucky number for the Sugar Bowl ticket raffle, was won by Richard Woods of Lutchet, La.

Mr. W. W. Stockstill Retires From Active Practice

Mr. W. W. Stockstill has announced to his clients, friends and the public his retirement after 30 years of active practice as an attorney.

It is not an extravagant expression to say that Mr. Stockstill has been a vital part of Hancock County and Bay St. Louis and has always played a prominent part in the educational world of this section.

From 1900-1908 Mr. Stockstill held the office of county superintendent of public education. He was responsible for several steps towards better schools and better education for the youth of the county. He secured and held the first 8 week summer Normal in the county; he influenced the Board of Supervisors to levy a special tax for the extension of the rural school term from four to six months. His administration resulted in better schools and better furniture for the schools. He was the father of the consolidated schools for the county though his dream was not realized until six years after he laid the foundation.

Mr. Stockstill was admitted to the bar in 1908 after completing his law course at the University of Mississippi and served two years as attorney to the Board of Supervisors. He served from August 1911 to January 1912 as clerk of courts of Hancock County upon the resignation of Mr. E. H. Hoffman.

Mr. Stockstill served for a number of years as superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school and as church clerk.

All of these offices have been given up by reason of Mr. Stockstill's failing health and his long years of service in public and church life.

It is hoped that this long needed rest will bring to him better health.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1 held another patrol election at a meeting on Monday, November 25, with Jane Ann Martin elected as patrol leader, Sylvia Horton, assistant. Other members of this patrol are Geraldine Middleton, Temple Perkins, Mary Lou Scianna and Barbara Ann Burrow.

Following the suggestion of Jane Ann Martin a basket was filled with food to be sent to a needy family. Scouts contributing the food were Mary Lou Scianna, Sylvia Horton, Dawn Seller, Mrs. J. B. Goldman, scout leader and Mrs. S. J. Ingram completed the basket and it was sent to a family who expressed deep appreciation for the thoughtfulness and kindness of the young people.

The scout house presented a festive scene on Monday, December 16 when the troop enjoyed a Christmas party which has always been their custom. The main feature of the party was the trimming of a Christmas tree which was taken to a small boy in the country who is an invalid. Gifts were exchanged among the scouts and refreshments were served. Dawn Seller arranged the party and was in charge of the tree and Norma Collier was in charge of the refreshments. Mrs. Francis Wilson presided as Scout Leader.

Troop One has had a happy year in 1946 but just now the girls are scouting for new leaders for 1947. The troop is growing in number and new leaders are needed. If you are interested in helping with this very fine organization contact Mrs. J. B. Goldman, phone 245.

Ortte's Christmas Tree Held Friday, Dec. 20

The annual Christmas Tree, given by Mr. Ed Ortte for the children of Hancock county, held Friday, December 20th was enjoyed by over one thousand children. Ortte's Theater was filled, with two and three youngsters in each seat and the aisles were packed, including the balcony which the colored patrons occupied.

The afternoon's entertainment was introduced by Bob Roberson followed with the showing of four comedies, then Miss Patsy Favre sang a Christmas carol. Mr. Dan Russell gave a brief resume of the origin of the tree, when Mr. Ortte lighted up a pine tree, eleven years ago, in Clermont Harbor, for the under privileged children. Later the tree was held at Ortte's Theater in Waveland and now for the past five years Bay St. Louis for all children of Hancock County and folks who are interested in attending. Mr. Russell spoke of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Ortte, in personally giving such a wonderful party, as they receive no donations. Adding that in view of the magnitude to which the affair has grown, it would be quite a privilege for some organization or organizations to support the tree, thus the happiness now brought to so many could extend to even greater numbers. Each child received, besides a handsome toy, fruit, popcorn and candy from Santa, who stood besides his large tree on the stage.

Although inclement weather prevailed, the faces of all present reflected only sunshine and happiness. Appreciation is extended to all who helped Santa on this happy occasion.

Midnight Mass at Our Lady Of the Gulf Church

At eleven thirty on the Eve of Christmas, at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, the choir under the direction of Mrs. George Gilmault, sang Christmas carols until midnight, when the Solemn High Mass was celebrated.

Rev. Msgr. A. J. Canon Gmelch was the celebrant with Rev. Father Edmond P. Desmond, deacon and Rev. Michael Fox, sub-deacon.

A short but impressive sermon was given by Msgr. Gmelch, who extended good wishes and God's blessings to all.

The altars were beautifully decorated with a profusion of poinsettias, and to the right of the main altar stood a miniature stable, depicting the scene of the First Christmas at Bethlehem. Mass was followed by Solemn Benediction, with Msgr. Gmelch as celebrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fischer and daughters, Lois and Joan, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hourbright at Myrtle Grove Farm.

Red Cross Notes

Six hundred and fifty table and tray favors were made for the Veterans at the Veterans Hospital in Biloxi, Mississippi by the little tots of from the first grade through the 6th of Bay High School, St. Rose de Lima Parochial Colored School and Waveland School. These were in the shape of the Christmas motifs and were artistically decorated. Place cards, in the shape of tents, Christmas napkins and booklets of Christmas carols were presented the patients. The Home Economics Class of Bay High School made cornucopias, these were filled with candy.

Each group of the respective schools presented their favors to the local Red Cross Office, at which time Mrs. Weston explained the many channels through which Red Cross works, thus making the many little helpers see the happiness their efforts brought to "our boys" for whom the war is not over.

Special appreciation is extended to the teachers whose patience and efforts made all of this possible.

ORTE THEATER SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE COCKEYED MIRACLE"

Here is a humorous and sentimental item that twists the life after death theme into a broad comedy that will be greatly amusing and appreciatively received by every member of the audience.

A modest and fresh picture, "The Cockeyed Miracle," provides a meeting ground for two of the screen's top character comedians—Frank Morgan and Keenan Wynn, both in high spirits and clowning with so many new surprises, in humorous wit.

Morgan and Wynn are naturals for one another and their partnership promises to be continued after their already proven successful hits. They turn in solid performances.

Karen de Wolf's screenplay swings skillfully between the pathos in the family's reaction to the death of Morgan and the Humor, sometimes farcical, in the Morgan-Wynn interplay. There has been ingenuity displayed in the direction that affectively knits the whole plot together and keeps the pace bright and light through to the witty finale. The shows a natural.

YOU HAVE MADE

Budweiser

TRADE MARK REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

THE MOST POPULAR BEER IN HISTORY

Inquiries about why enough Budweiser is not yet available have become so numerous that we ask our good friends everywhere in America to remember these facts:

Your demand has made Budweiser the most popular beer the world has ever known—year after year after year. Official government figures prove it.

Our production today is the greatest in the history of brewing. Yet, Budweiser's high standard of quality is maintained at all times.

The constantly expanded Home of Budweiser covering 70 city blocks in St. Louis is the world's largest brewery—as it was when beer returned in 1933.

Each year, beginning in 1933, facilities to increase the production of Budweiser were added until the war put an end to expansion in the brewing industry.

But, each succeeding year found your increased demand running far ahead of our expanded facilities. Thus, Budweiser had to be rationed to dealers each year for several years before wartime shortages introduced rationing of many products to the country at large. In spite of the fact that grain quotas have been largely restored, Budweiser still is being rationed, because your demand still exceeds the production of our present vast facilities.

So that you will find Budweiser again wherever you ask for it, our post-war expansion program will get under way just as soon as building skills and materials are available.

Meanwhile, each day sees Budweiser arriving in communities everywhere to supply dealers equitably if not abundantly.

When you ask for Budweiser and get it, you are enjoying the quality and the distinctive taste that have made it—sip by sip, drink by drink, bottle by bottle and barrel by barrel, year in and year out, the most popular beer in history.

SMITH—TRAVIRCA

St. Charles Catholic Church of Picaune was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon, December 15, at 3 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Marie Travirca, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Travirca of this city became the bride of Theodore Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Smith of Poplarville.

The Rev. Father Joseph Shermesser officiated at the ceremony. The vows were spoken before the altar, with white baskets of snowy glad-oli and fern, and candelabra of white taper candles, making an impressive setting for the afternoon affair.

Mrs. T. S. Ross played the traditional wedding music, and accompanied Lloyd Cagnolatti, as he sang "I Love You Truly," as a prelude to the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a California original suit of neutral wool, fashioned with Dolman sleeves, and fastened at the waist with single silver button cluster. Her blouse of shell pink crepe was embroidered with spray designs of hemstitching, and she wore a small black felt hat trimmed with a baby ostrich feather of a harmonizing shade of pink. Her only jewelry was a gold pink bracelet, the gift of the groom, and she wore an orchid.

Miss Joyce Fuente, cousin of the bride, from Jackson, Miss., was maid of honor, and Chester Travirca, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were R. J. Wheat of Poplarville, and Chester Travirca, Jr. of State College.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with more than a hundred friends and relatives attending. Mrs. Lee Fuente, assisted by Misses Bernice Riley, Nada Smith, Jeanette Fuente, and Mrs. Kent Knight, served wedding cake, punch and wine, while Mrs. Tony Benigno of Kiln and Miss Christine Furr, had charge of the guest register. Following a honeymoon trip to the Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Picaune, where they are both associated with Crosby Chemicals, Inc.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Picaune High School, and Mississippi State College for Women, Columbus. —Picaune Item.

—J. R. Scharff is a patient in Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, undergoing a series of tests. It is hoped his condition does not prove to be serious.

Dr. and Mrs. Leon D. Johnson announce the birth of a son, Leon D. Johnson, Jr., at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, on Wednesday, December 11th. This birth had previously been incorrectly reported as being a girl.
